NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON BLACK POWER
NEWARK, NEW JERSEY
JULY 20 - 23, 1967
RACIAL MATTER

The following was obtained on July 21, 1967, from [redacted] and local newspapers: b7C b7D

Registration for the National Conference on Black Power (NCBP) began at 3:00 pm on July 20, 1967, at 24 Rector Street, Newark. The first meeting of the NCBP was held in Newark under tight security on the evening of July 20, 1967. About 400 persons representing some 45 organizations attended. After the opening press conference, where white reporters were excluded, the opening session was held. This session was devoted almost entirely to organizational matters for the remainder of the conference. The opening session ended at about 10:45 pm.

As H. Rap Brown, National Chairman of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), talked to several Negro newsmen at the press conference, a white reporter for "The New York Times", a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, stepped into the room from an open window. He was shoved back outside the window.

'Kill' Poem Is Endorsed By Powell

BIMINI, Bahamas (AP) — Adam Clayton Powell says he wants the black power movement to adopt as its battle hymn a poem calling on men to kill so they will be respected in death if not in life.

The Harlem representative-elect read the poem, "If we must die," at his news conference in Bimini Wednesday. In a private interview later, Powell said he planned to have the poem set to music.

Powell said the verse could be for black power what "We shall overcome" was for the desegregation movement.

The author of the poem was Calude McKay, a Jamacian who lived part of his life in New York before returning to his island to die.

Powell said riots in Detroit were "a necessary phase of the black revolution—necessary."

"Violence is a cleansing force," Powell said. "It frees the native from his inferiority complex."

Powell said the quote on violence came from Frantz Fanon, a French Negro doctor from Martinique who deserted to the Algerians and was an advocate of anticolonial revolution until his death from cancer in 1961.

"I agree with it," Powell said, "I endorse it and adopt it as my feeling."

Powell said he plans to remain on Bimini—which he called "my new Harlem"—until New York officials allow him to return without going to jail. He is wanted in New York to serve at least 90 days for criminal contempt of court.

Powell has been elected to fill the congressional seat which became vacant March 1 when Congress excluded him. A congressional committee had reported Powell misused public funds.

"If they arrest me, they'll burn New York down," Powell said at the news conference. He said he had not surrendered to serve the jail term because "it is an unjustifiable, obscene form of justice to put me in prison for three months for a case that's been completely settled."

Powell said he might run as a black power candidate for President unless the major parties meet "the needs of the black people."

Action #1, pla[redacted]

[redacted] b7C

A Better National Leadership
....through DEMOCRACY

The deep south falsely elected representatives who were corrected by the long sought after Voting Rights legislation, were not fully corrected, for the same ones guilty of daning Equal education and thereby the right to Vote as well as economic potential are the same representatives who ousted Adam C. Powell.

If you agree the action taken against Adam C. Powell, not only involves New Yorkers but yourself and his removial was not justified nor proper we ask for your support.

b7C

1. Send a letter to proper Federal investigative agencies, the Attorney General, the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and explain to them your opinion of the NEED for an investigation. - N.Y.,N.Y.

2. Write organizations that have upheld Civil Rights and been successful, or when attending your local meeting have the group send a letter to National headquarters asking for their support.

3. Question local, state, and national candidates about how and if they will give support to this worthy goal, obtaining back Adam C. Powell's rightful place.

4. Obtain support of national leaders in Congress stressing the need for your principle to be heard and acted on.

Adam C. Powell obtained for you by giving support to Civil Rights and other legislation of concern to all Americans wanting better Democracy, he may not be perfect in every way and afford he makes, but better surely that "some" who voted to have him ousted.

The object of this paper is to have each joiner in the effort to find at least 5 other people who will write one letter, then obtain 5 other people, so on until we have listeners who will act for Democracy.

Talk Given In San Diego By Powell

Adam Clayton Powell was in San Diego today for a speech at San Diego State College sponsored by the Associated Student Body.

Powell addressed about 4,000 students in the outdoor theater on the local campus.

He made a plea for white students to rally behind Negro leaders in what he termed the black revolution.

He won scattered applause during his 30-minute talk.

The 59-year-old former representative said the young people of the nation are the only ones who can save what he termed this "sick society."

Powell, who called his ouster from congress "obscene justice," is on a nationwide speaking tour of college campuses. He spoke yesterday at the University of California at Los Angeles, and left San Diego for San Francisco this afternoon.

Powell to Talk at SDS

Adam Clayton Powell will speak at 11 a.m. tomorrow at San Diego State College.

The address will be made in the Open Air Theater and is sponsored by the Associated Students.

Powell, from New York's Harlem district, was denied his seat in the House of Representatives last March on charges of misconduct.

The next month his district re-elected him, but he has not claimed his seat in Congress. He faces arrest in New York on contempt charges, stemming from a court judgment against him.
